

ELEPHANTS AND VIETNAM CENTRAL HIGHLANDS ADVENTURE!

- Learn about Vietnamese Culture
- Immerse in Coffee Capital of Vietnam
- Learn about Elephants and their rehabilitation
- Visit Lak Lake and Dray Sap Waterfall

DAY 01 – ARRIVAL INTO BUON MA THUOT CITY, CENTRAL HIGHLANDS

Xin Chào! Welcome to Buon Ma Thuot! Meet your Program Leaders after passing through customs. Head to the hotel, settle in for a program orientation to discuss local culture, etiquette and the week ahead.

DAY 02, 03 & 04 – COFFEE AND VILLAGE IMMERSION

Over the next two days, fully immerse yourself in the coffee capital of Vietnam. Help your host family planting, growing, cultivating and harvesting coffee beans while listening to their stories.

DAY 05 & 06 – ELEPHANTS CONSERVATION AWARENESS AND CAMPING IN THE FOREST

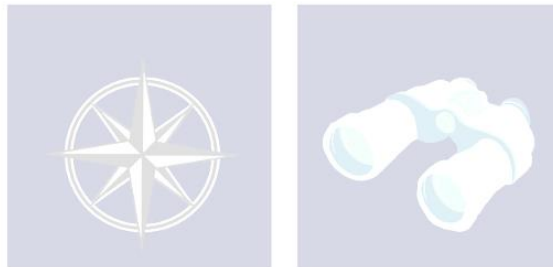

Exploring the forest and learning all about how elephants were rehabilitated and living in their own environment. Tune in to local park rangers illustrate every individual elephant's character, their history and why they are living in Yok Don national park. The ethnic minorities in this region have a long history of coexisting and working with elephants.

DAY 07 – LAK LAKE AND DRAY SAP WATERFALL EXPLORATION

This morning, we'll drive to Lak Lake. Visit Jun ethnic minority village, where people still follow their ancestral ways of fishing, weaving brocade, and water cultivating. On the way back to Buon Ma Thuot, visit Dray Sap waterfall in the middle of hardwood rainforest.

DAY 08 – FAREWELL CEREMONY AND DEPARTURE. TẠM BIỆT CENTRAL HIGHLANDS!

Savor your last cup of delicious central highlands coffee before departing. We genuinely hope your time spent here, the experiences you've shared, and the things you've reflected on will stay with you for a lifetime. After some final group photos with Team Vietnam, your Program Leaders will take you to the airport for your departure as you say goodbye and reflect on your adventure.
